About the TV presentation

World Series of Backgammon Enterprises is the world leader in televised backgammon events. Originated by television producer Andy Bell and gaming executive Eric Guedj, WSOB creates the most dynamic televised backgammon shows for international audiences, using innovative techniques to capture action from the world's oldest game

The 2007/2008 season will see several new dimensions for the new season including a multi-event added money tour, appointment of superstar games player Gus Hansen to the WSOB commentary team joining our new host, New Yorker Jessie Cantrell with John Clark, main-stay of the commentary box with his cutting remarks!

The entire tour will be broadcast in Europe on Eurosport 1 and 2 and a number of additional channels are taking the Series territory by territory

A 26' Preview show will air on partner channels in the build-up and aftermath of UK Masters

WorldSeriesofBackgammon.com for regularly updated broadcast information on global broadcasts, news from the tour including Will Cockerell's news and gossip column, "The Cockerell Chronicle"
